Koshari is a tasty Egyptian meal with many simple ingredients. First, you cook rice, pasta, and lentils. The red sauce is made by frying chopped garlic in oil, then adding tomato sauce and vinegar. Next, you make crispy onions: cut them into thin slices and fry them until they turn crunchy. Put the rice in a bowl, add the pasta, lentils, and chickpeas. Finally, pour the red sauce over it and top with the onions. You can add Dakka for extra flavor. This traditional mix is very yummy!
